In The

Eleventh

Court of Appeals

No.

11-09-00357-CR

LISA BRANDON JOHNSON,

Appellant

V.

STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee On Appeal from the 39th District

Court

Haskell County,

Texas Trial Court Cause

No. 5654 MEMORANDUM OPINION

Lisa Brandon Johnson appeals her conviction by a jury of the offense of possession of less than one gram of cocaine. Appellant pleaded true to one enhancement allegation, and the jury assessed her punishment at confinement for two years. The judgment of the trial court states that the jury found appellant guilty of a second-degree felony offense, but that the trial court assessed her punishment at confinement for a term of twenty-five years. Appellant asserts in a single issue that the evidence is insufficient to support the conviction. We affirm. Background Facts On October 8, 2006, Texas Department of Public Safety Trooper James Scott was patrolling a high crime area in Haskell County in response to a call from dispatch that appellant had been reported as a fugitive. Appellant was wanted in Oklahoma on warrants, and she was a passenger in a vehicle that Trooper Scott observed driving erratically and at a high rate of f988f36e3a
